

I write to implore you not to change the Indiana law regarding "Telemarketing" calls. Since it was implemented, we have enjoyed freedom from such intrusions, and it has been muchly appreciated. Please allow the law to remain in its present form.